

“We Must Help Each Other”

The Monroe Foundation Community Reinvestment Organizing Project

“We Must Help Each Other”

Report Card on CRA Outcomes of State Treasurer’s CRA Pledge Policy

NAME OF BANK	GRADE	REASON
Bank of America	Excellent	2009: Provided a Community Development Grant for Foreclosure Certification Training/Outreach in Englewood; 2010, Working with Community Partner Genesis Housing to Address Foreclosures In Mid South Community
Citigroup, Illinois	Excellent	2009-Current: Provided a Community Development Grant to a pilot partnership of community counseling and housing advocacy groups that are focusing on providing loan modification assistance and counseling to Citibank borrowers “at-risk” of foreclosure in targeted zip codes, led by Nobel Neighbors, Partners In Community Building, Inc., and the Westside Ministers Coalition
Marquette Bank	Excellent	1999-Current: Developing and aggressively marketing Financial Services and Products to the “unbanked” in Englewood through the Fresh Start Financial Literacy and Homeownership Programs. Participates in Community Development Meetings w/COP Partners to develop new banking/lending/investment opportunities quarterly.
PNC Bank	Excellent	2009-Current: Provided a Community Development Grant to support Micro-Enterprise Lending on the Southside of Chicago through Entrepreneurs University Foundation. Continues to Work with the Monroe Foundation to identify ongoing community development investment, banking and lending opportunities
US Bank	Excellent	2010: Provided a Community Development Investment Grant to the Westside Ministers Coalition (WMC) to support homeownership counseling for the Westside Community Development Corporation; Excellent record of community involvement, CRA qualifiable investments grants.
Seaway Bank & Trust Company	Incomplete	Has not responded to community dialogue requests for over two years.
Shore Bank	Incomplete	Has not responded to community dialogue request for over two years.
Fifth Third Bank	Excellent	Partnership with Ministers Conference of South Suburban Cook County to promote financial services access through a community development grant. Supported Small Business Development projects of the Monroe Foundation
Harris Bank	Excellent	2009: Invested in the Minister’s of South Suburban Cook County Educational Conference; instrumental in the development of the Ministers Conference Banking Counsel.
First Midwest	Excellent	Invested in the Community Reinvestment Academy, the Workforce Development Initiative of the Minister’s Conference of South Suburban Cook County.
United Central Bank	Good	Supporting collaborative partner.

Signature of Community Reinvestment Organizing Project Partners

The Monroe Foundation
 The Black Leadership Development Institute (BLDI) Community Banking Coalition
 Ministers Conference of South Suburban Cook County, Inc.
 Entrepreneurs University Foundation
 Partners In Community Building, Inc.
 Westside Ministers Coalition